I'm so happy to be working at Flowerpot Creative, and I have a little secret - I am so in love with the nature around me, but I don't have time to really enjoy it properly. The truth is, it's all a bit on my plate right now! I'm here to make sure that you get to enjoy nature and gardens too. I create, share and teach nature based creative products. My aim is to make sure that gardening is both relaxing and fun, and nature doesn't get shoved aside in our gardens. I write and photograph. I make things out of old things, mainly wood and metal. I grow vegetables, herbs, fruit and flowers for my studio, and keep chickens in my backyard. I design and make beautifully crafted wooden limes, citrus planters and other garden products. I have a design eye, a passion for detail and a dream of living in a beautiful garden, surrounded by nature. If you've stumbled onto this site, you might be interested in one or more of the things I make.
