Category:Propellerhead software Category:Audio recording software Category:Audio software with JACK supportFender Custom Shop Custom Rosewood / Indian Rosewood Strap Stratocaster No production examples, in stock For those of us with a real passion for luthier-built guitars, the Custom Shop is a magical place. A boutique guitar that is handcrafted by Fender to the highest standards, it is where creativity comes to life. The Custom Shop strives to provide an unparalleled guitar experience, building guitars to the highest standards and using only the finest materials. There are very few of these guitars that aren't signed and numbered by the luthier. "Custom Shop" (and "Custom Shop" alone, without a "1") guitars are limited to only 12 a year, on average. And, they are even less likely to be made available in Rosewood or Indian Rosewood finishes. There are not even any "Custom Shop" or "Custom Shop 1" branded guitars that are built in this manner. The Rosewood or Indian Rosewood Strat is most likely one of the closest you will ever find to the original. This particular guitar is finished with a clear lacquer and light up-
