Permissions: ===== You need to be logged in to the App Store in order to access the in-app purchase features I would highly suggest this app, as I have been doing really well in my business school classes using these flashcards. The design is clean, simple, and easy to navigate. I would also say it's a great study tool.

Comments I find that they just aren't very good as a study tool. But I use them for conversational flashcards, which I really like. When I was a kid I played around with the flashcards I got from my teacher. I think a different approach would be beneficial for kids. When I was younger I memorized a lot of text books. Now that I have a wife and kids memorizing text books isn't really an option. When I want to know a certain fact, I can quickly go on the internet, where I can read and learn and ask questions. It's far easier to be able to quickly look something up on the internet and use that instead of trying to memorize something I know I will have to look
