Daniel Kawczynski, a member of the European Parliament and former TV host, won in the Conservative stronghold of Devizes with a majority of 3,347. The result is a major blow to David Cameron's coalition government. The Conservatives were among the few remaining government ministers in the European Parliament. Mr Kawczynski, the first UKIP member of the UK's lower house of parliament, gained the seat from Conservative MP Theresa Villiers, who is standing down. 'A millstone' The electorate in Devizes went to the polls on a sunny Friday morning, when 20% of voters turned out. UKIP has gained the seat from Ms Villiers, who is standing down The UK Independence Party candidate, Daniel Kawczynski, took the seat for UKIP Mr Kawczynski, born in Buenos Aires, Argentina, had lived in the south-east for the past 40 years. He has lived in the Devizes constituency for the past four years, where he is a 595f342e71
