Hi,My son has run off in to a field to collect acorns, which he has been told not to do. He is aged 9 and has walked on my parents property before. Unfortunately, as he was walking in front of a car he got hurt. I got a short summary of events and wondered what to do next and if I had a case to take to court.Thanks for your help. My son has just run across the road in to a field where he should not be. He has just been rescued from the a big dog who had obviously seen something, and was chasing him. My son was not injured, and the dog has been put on a lead. I am a bit worried that, given that this is a busy country road, my son may be slightly traumatised, and was wondering if the dog (an older dog who had
