Make plays, save matches and improve your team with training, tournaments, player development and much more. What new features does FIFA 22 bring?

FIFA 20 introduced the new Create a Club feature, allowing you to customise your very own soccer team. In FIFA 21, it's no longer just the whole club you can make, it's the jerseys, supporters, cheerleaders and training facilities too. FIFA 22 builds on this philosophy with the introduction of the Create an Arena. Using the same robust customization tools as Create a Club, you can build your own stadium, create your own mascot, design your own team, stadium, and even customise the look of the crowd. With the creation of your own club, your real-life football club can now take on real-life football club rivals in the new Seasons mode. The biggest change in FIFA 22 is in Moments: Be a Part of it. In this, the new My Career feature, you can choose to play as one of three players with unique personalities. You can be the fastest, the strongest, or the most clever, and play a more active role in the game depending on your class. You can also play matchmaker, giving your friends the chance to play a new, custom-made FIFA match together. This is further enhanced with the free-to-play Seasons mode, where you can take your EA SPORTS FIFA 22 club through a season where every touch of the ball will earn you achievements and unlock rewards. This allows you to play matches alongside your friends and enjoy a live experience reminiscent of a real-life football season. One of the most popular elements in the game is

‘EA SPORTS Skill Stick’. At the flick of a button you can pass, shoot, dribble or head the ball, not only ensuring the easiest control over the ball, but also getting you into the action earlier than ever before. Back to Reality Mode is back, and now allows you to play a match without worrying about opponent tactics or strategy, simply using realistic game settings to play the way real football should be played. FIFA 22 brings the philosophy of Creating a Club to the Fan Life, giving you the chance to create your own player avatar complete
